Christmas Recording

It's just about that time of year again! Are you prepared for Christmas? This year, Red Flame will be offering Christmas recording sessions for students of all ages. If you or your child is interested in putting together a special project to commemorate the season, why not record a Christmas song? It's a great way to create memories, and it could make for a great gift too!

Who:

A qualified Red Flame audio engineer will be facilitating all recording sessions. Students of all ages are welcome.

What:

This Christmas Recording event is sure to be a great way to create memories, and gain recording experience in the process!

Recording sessions are charged by the hour. Standard rates apply for all sessions. You can book as much time as you need! For more information, refer to the Audio Production section of the website.

When:

Sessions can be booked between November 21 and December 17, 2011. This period will not be extended! Call (403) 585-9179 to register and ensure optimal accommodations. Most recording sessions will be placed between 10 AM and 3 PM or after 9:30 PM on weekdays, or during the weekend.

Where:

Red Flame is located in northwest Calgary, just off of Country Hills Blvd. Call (403) 585-9179 for more information. Mobile recording options are also available (additional charges apply). If you want us to come to your home and service you there, we are more than willing to make arrangements.

Why:

Because Christmas is awesome, and we love to celebrate at Red Flame!
